Tech: Hello, this is Blendtec customer service returning your call. My name is Fernando, how can I help you?

Customer: Hi Fernando, I'm calling because I know that there is like a recall for the BlendJet 2. There's two BlendJets that I ordered around the same time. One of them doesn't have the serial number sticker, so I wanted to know how I could submit a recall for the one that doesn't have the sticker. The other one I already went through the online process where you have to take a picture and everything to dispose of it. But I'm just concerned how to do the other one.

Tech: Okay, thank you for calling but unfortunately you're calling the wrong company. We are Blendtec, not BlendJet.

Customer: [UNINTELLIGIBLE].

Tech: I can give you the phone number for BlendJet.

Customer: Yeah, 'cause I went online, and this is the number that popped up, but that would be great.

Tech: Yeah, I don't know why is that. But I'm going to give you a phone.

Customer: Okay.

Tech: That phone number is 1-844.

Customer: Okay.

Tech: 588-1555.

Customer: 555. Okay, thank you so much.

Tech: Yeah, you're welcome. Have a good day.

Customer: You too. Bye-bye.
